It probably won't be mentioned by the corporate media, but Nov 11 is the 100th Anniversary of Armistice Day - the day designated by Congress "to perpetuate peace through good will and mutual understanding" before it was switched to Veterans Day in 1954, morphing into a day of hero worship, glorification of war, and displays of militarism.

Veterans For Peace has a national movement to recognize the "eleventh day of the eleventh month" as Armistice Day. In Fresno we are asking you to join this movement with an event designed to unite all individuals and groups working for justice and peace.

A day that celebrates peace, not war, is the best way to honor the sacrifices of veterans
